Best Practice 1

Title of The Practice: All Round Development of Students Goal It is often observed that students in educational institutions keep teaching theoretical knowledge and become storehouse of knowledge without putting this knowledge into practice. The college makes efforts for overall development of students and motivates them to become responsible citizen through value based and social activities of various organisations active in college. The college always strives for overall development of students so that the objective of turning knowledgeable students into responsible citizens can be met. The practice College puts in variety of efforts to promote all round development of students. Students are oriented about activities of NSS, NCC, Rovers and Rangers, Red Ribbon club, Eco club and sports, after the admission process is over. They are motivated to join these organizations to inculcate in them team spirit, an inclination towards social service, healthy competition and enhancement of communication skills. NSS volunteers organise cleanliness and plantation activities in and around the college on regular basis. NCC cadets of college participate in various college and social activities and represent college in various competitions and parades. Organisations such as NSS, rovers and rangers, red ribbon club also organise blood donation camps in college for the noble cause. Besides NSS volunteers also donate blood whenever required by any person in need. Celebration of national days like science day, International women's day, AIDS day, Thalassemia awareness day not only sensitises students about issues and problems of society, but also helps them to imbibe social values. Sportsmen of the college have imbibed the essence of discipline besides making excellent achievements at state, zonal and national level. In many sports events college has won champion trophies and runner up trophies in succession for three years.
